

The most recent communiqué from Metropolitan Joseph to his clergy contained the folloing directive concerning masking in church:

Masks should continue to be worn in church, however, in those areas of greatly decreasing numbers, where the state government allows, the faithful may lower or remove their masks for periods of time. When people move about the church or enter or exit, masks should continue to be worn.